

SELECTION HIGHLIGHTS

MEETING FACILITIES PAGE 68

- Located close to New York City and three major airports: Long Island MacArthur Airport (ISP), LaGuardia International Airport (LGA), and JFK International Airport (JFK).
- Diverse landscape includes vineyards, beaches, and historic villages.
- Wide variety of full-service hotels and meeting facilities.

■ Jones Beach Broadwalk

Photo Courtesy of KKMPhotos; Long Island CVB

NEW AND NOTEWORTHY:

The new Inn and Spa at East Wind (www.theinnateastwind.com) features 50 spacious and richly appointed rooms and suites with classic decor, rich fabrics, and antique furnishings. The Inn also offers more than 30,000 square feet of meeting space for up to 1,000 people, and can accommodate galas of up to 1,200.

Photo Courtesy of Natasha Pokorny; Long Island CVB

■ Pier

The Hyatt Regency Wind

Watch (windwatch.hyatt.com) recently completed a $10 million facelift and renovation, and now offers flat-screen televisions, grand beds, and luxurious bathrooms, as well as a redesigned lobby, lounge, and restaurant.

Montauk Manor (www.montaukmanor.com) at the end of Long Island's South Fork, has recently completed a renovation of its conference facilities, adding sound-proof room dividers, new A/V equipment, and other technology upgrades.

TOP ATTRACTIONS:

The Bay Street Theatre

(www.baystreet.org), located on the Long Wharf in Sag Harbor, is dedicated to presenting new, classic, and contemporary productions of the highest professional quality.

The Fire Island Lighthouse

(www.fireislandlighthouse.com), built in 1827, is located on the Fire Island National Seashore just east of Robert Moses State Park. Group tours are available.

The Castello di Borghese Vineyard and Winery

(www.castellodiborghese.com) is Long Island's oldest winery. New owners have recently expanded the vineyard and added a café and gallery. Group tours and events are available.

PARTY PLACES:

The Atlantis Marine World

(www.atlantismarineworld.com) in Riverhood adds excitement to any corporate event; its ballroom can accommodate up to 500 guests.

The Belmont Racetrack

(www.nyra.com), home of the prestigious third leg of the Triple Crown, offers dining and group rates.

ATTENTION SHOPPERS:

In terms of malls, Long Island has a wide variety. Roosevelt Field in Garden City offers 250 of the nation's finest retailers, and the newly renovated Walt Whitman Mall in Huntington has nearly 100.

Bargain hunters will love the Tanger Outlet Center in Riverhead, where they'll discover the latest in fashions, home furnishings, and accessories at great prices.

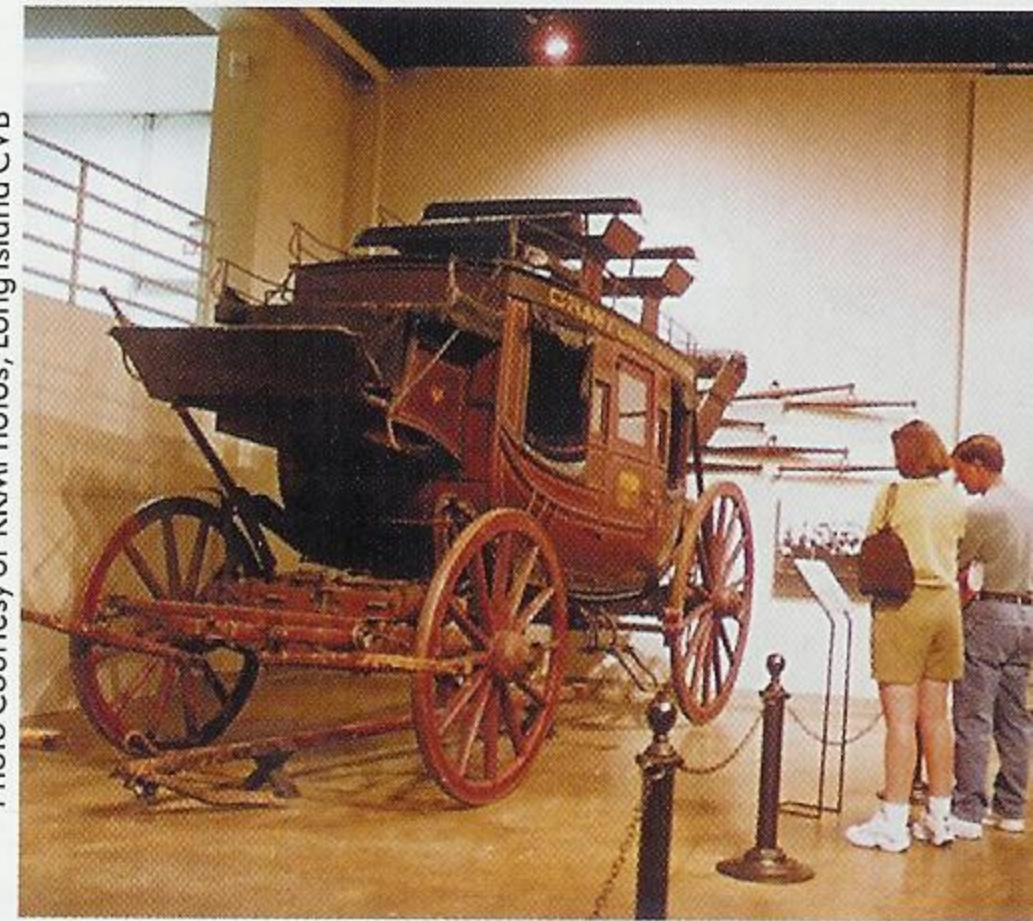

Photo Courtesy of KKMPhotos; Long Island CVB

■ Carriage

The Miracle Mile at the Americana Manhasset has the most elite collection of luxury retailers this side of Rodeo Drive.

ADDITIONAL ENTERTAINMENT:

The Jeanne Rimsky Theater

(www.landmarkonmainstreet.org) in Port Washington offers 425 seats for musical, dance, and theatrical programs.

The Nassau County Museum of Art

(www.nassaumuseum.com) combines the dynamic imagery of a museum with the grandness of a historic mansion and the natural beauty of incredible gardens. It offers four important exhibitions per year featuring the works of internationally acclaimed artists. Group rates and private tours are available.

The Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum & Exhibition Center

(516-794-9303) hosts a variety of sporting events and concerts and features an 18,000-seat arena, a 60,000-square-foot exhibition hall, 3 meeting rooms, and a 6,000-space parking lot.

John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK)
LaGuardia International Airport (LGA)
L.I. MacArthur Airport (ISP)