Roaring Back to Glitz and Glamour on LONG ISLAND’S GOLD COAST

Journey to a world filled with elegance and opulence, where architectural style defined the extravagance of the Gilded Age through the Roaring Twenties. The North Shore of Long Island is home to America's historic Gold Coast, where grand estates once frequented by the who’s who of society are now open to visitors who wish to relive history. Personified in the classic novel “The Great Gatsby,” the early 20th century mansions have a history as lavish as their interiors. The following estates are open to the public for tours and events.

OHEKA CASTLE

Resting majestically on one of the highest points of Long Island, OHEKA CASTLE emanates the elegant refinement of a chateau in France coupled with world-class service and a rich history that is distinctly American.

Financier and philanthropist Otto Hermann Kahn built OHEKA CASTLE a century ago in Huntington. During the 1920s, Kahn used the 109,000-square-foot estate as a summer home, where he hosted lavish parties and regularly entertained royalty, heads of state and Hollywood stars.

Today, following a $30 million restoration, OHEKA CASTLE has earned a reputation as one of the most recognized prestigious wedding venues around the world and has been the backdrop of many famous music, television, film and photo productions.

OLD WESTBURY GARDENS

One of the most magnificent of the Gold Coast mansions, Old Westbury Gardens features a lavish English-style house, as well as 200 acres of formal gardens. The palette of what is in bloom changes with the seasons and every week. Be transported to a different age while exploring the landscaped grounds and woodlands along with the ponds and lakes of the truly grand Old Westbury Gardens.

Completed by an English designer in 1906, Old Westbury Gardens was the home of John S. Phipps, heir to the steel fortune, along with his wife, Margarita, and their children. The mansion was created as an American representation of Margarita Phipps’ old family estate, Battle Abbey, in England.

Today, Old Westbury Gardens welcomes visitors of all ages for guided tours of the house and gardens. Old Westbury Gardens has been recognized in various publications for its beautiful architectural and floral garden design.
SANDS POINT PRESERVE

Sands Point Preserve rests on the original Guggenheim Estate, which embodies the elegance and opulence definitive of the Gold Coast during the early 20th century. Sands Point was the famed “East Egg” of F. Scott Fitzgerald’s “The Great Gatsby.” The Sands Point name comes from the historic Sands family, which dates back to 1379, when Robert de Sandys was born in Rottenby Castle in England. Four different mansions occupy the Guggenheim Estate, each with a unique style: Hempstead House, Castle Gould, Falaise and Mille Fleur. Hempstead House illustrates the extraordinary lifestyle of the 1920s and 1930s, where the family hosted grand parties, performances and exhibitions by world-class artists and gatherings of the powerful elite of the time. Castle Gould, the first of the mansions on the estate, was modeled after Ireland’s Kilkenny Castle. Falaise embodies the Medieval and Renaissance era with antiques from the 16th and 17th centuries.

Today, the beautiful 216-acre park and preserve and its mansions welcome visitors for exploration into a time rich in culture, history and distinct architecture.

EAGLE’S NEST ESTATE

William K. Vanderbilt II was heir to one of America’s greatest fortunes and traveled the world collecting marine and cultural artifacts for the museum and mansion he built on Long Island in 1910. Located in Centerport, Eagle’s Nest is a 43-acre waterfront estate with a 24-room Spanish-Revival mansion filled with priceless art and furnishings.

Built by renowned architects Warren and Wetmore, designers of New York City’s Grand Central Terminal, the stunning mansion offers an intimate look at the life of a privileged family from the Jazz Age through the second World War.

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Eagle’s Nest is a time capsule with decor and artwork exactly as the Vanderbilt family left it, a true present-day “living museum” for visitors looking to travel back in time.
