

Long Island Sports Commission

Overview

Long Island's public and private sports facilities coupled with experienced event professionals, a solid volunteer base, tiered hotel room rates and a strong transportation infrastructure appeal to sport event owners on every level. There is tremendous support and enthusiasm among public and private leaders to bring major sporting events to Long Island. Close proximity to the media capital of the world provides access to this type of exposure like no other area. Additionally, the Island is easily accessible with a strong ground and rail transportation infrastructure and service by three main airports – JFK and LaGuardia International Airports and Long Island's MacArthur Airport.

CORPORATE/COMMUNITY RESOURCES

The Long Island Sports Commission, a division of the Long Island CVB, has been bringing national and international sporting events to Long Island for more than 12 years. The Island holds an exceptional reputation as being one of the leading and highly recognizable sports destinations in the country. With an impressive record of hosting distinguished events, facility operators provide the professionalism, experience and expertise necessary to ensure the success of any event. Local volunteers help support the Commerce Championship – Champions Tour, Hampton Classic Horse Show, Belmont Stakes and the NYS Games for the Physically Challenged – utilizing more than 500 volunteers annually.
