6. Westhampton Beach, New York

For those who are not taking a helicopter to the Hamptons, the Westhampton Airport is a popular option.

In addition to its society scene, dining and shopping, the Hamptons is home to popular beaches such as Coopers Beach in Southampton and Main Beach in East Hampton.

Regionally, Long Island gets over 9 million overnight visitors per year, and they spend $6 billion per year, according to numbers crunched by the Long Island Convention and Visitors Bureau & Sports Commission. On average they spend $246 per overnight stay, but those numbers are higher for the Hamptons.
