Hampton, New York

It's the land of Ina Garten and Martha Stewart, of P. Diddy's White Party and the scandals of ABC's Revenge. This spit of land on Long Island's South Fork is a star-filled summertime hangout, but many don't know that those of us without hedge funds and network deals are still welcome on the region's beautiful beaches and picturesque acres of farmland. Montauk, with its 218-year-old lighthouse, is a fishing mecca, and families take to its coastline for beachcombing, kayaking, and picnicking. Or they meander the Main Streets of storybook towns like Amagansett and Sag Harbor, where boutiques share space with whaling captains' Greek Revival homes capped by widows walks.

Where to Stay: You could live large like Little Sole and rent Grey Gardens for a cool $125,000 (scarves not included). Otherwise, Hartman's Briny Squeezes Motel and The Ocean Resort Inn, both in Montauk, are surprisingly affordable sleeps in this ooh-la-la locale.
